CLAY CITY, KY., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1909.

NO. 41.

Let us Have The Bridges.

The Powell Fiscal Court adjourned last week to meet again tomorrow when it will consider the erection of two more bridges, one at the two fords between this city and Stanton. Some argue that the county is now already enough in debt, and it does seem to be so, but this end of the county has had particularly nothing spent for bridges then why not distribute the bridges equally over the county as it is a common indebtedness. If all the bridges we need can be gotten now we will have the use of them while we are being taxed to pay for them. We need two bridges at Clay City one each on the North and South side of the city and we believe the town can raise money for half of each.

For Judge.

As we go to press we learn that Mr. R. W. Garrett has been agreed upon by the Republicans in conference at Stanton for the nomination for County Judge, and Ira G. Proffitt for Superintendent of Schools, and that no further candidates will be put forth.

It is reported that the Director of the Mint has decided to continue the issuance of $2 bills. The two now in circulation will be called in and in the place of a few years there will be bills of that denomination.

The Court of Appeals has decided that when a man has been convicted of false swearing in a case he cannot testify in his behalf in a subsequent case. The other side raises an objection.

Out of a total of 751,786 immigrants that came to the United States the past year, Kentucky received only 516 of them, and we feel none the worse off because more failed to come.

Death of C. W. Barnett.

C. W. Barnett passed away Friday morning last at 2 o'clock, a. m. at the Good Samaritan Hospital, Lexington, as a result of an operation two weeks before. Burial at Hardwick's creek Christian church cemetery Sunday, funeral services being conducted by the Rev. R. A. Irvin.

Deceased was fifty-seven years old and was a member of the Christian Church. He leaves a wife and five children, Fletcher, Bert and Grover Barnett and Mrs. J. C. Allen and Miss Carrie Barnett.

Until two years ago Mr. Barnett was a prominent business man of this city and served as councilman for four years. When he quit business here moved to Clark county but was going to move back to his old home on Hardwick's Creek next March.

Big Fire at Winchester.

Winchester suffered a $50,000 fire on South Main street opposite the Brown Proctoria hotel early Tuesday morning. The fire originated in Bean's carriage shop, and it was with great difficulty that the fire was checked even after doing so much damage.

Every newspaper in the State is for the amendment of the constitution except two. Vote for it.

One of our blessings is that we don't have to register this time in order to get to vote.

Dr. Martin reports the birth of a son Oct. 8th to Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Carr.

The Grand Lodge of Masons will be in session at Louisville next week.

Ladies, Don't fail to see our new line of Tailored Suits.

Mrs. J. W. Williams.

Republican Convention.

The Republicans of this county met at Stanton Saturday and put up the following ticket: John H. Hardwick, for County Judge; Tom Hall, for Sheriff; R. C. Welch, County Attorney; Ira G. Proffitt, for County Superintendent of Schools. The convention was very irregular and gave much dissatisfaction among the party.

Just as we are ready to go to press we received a telephone message stating that the three first named candidates refused to accept the nomination under such terms. This proves a gentlemanly act for these men. They didn't seem to want a tainted nomination. "Haste sometimes makes waste."

Our Ticket.

The Democrats of Clay City met in mass convention Saturday night and nominated the following gentlemen candidates for councilmen: J. H. O'Rear, Q. C. Flynn, Taulbee Mountz, Logan Stuart, Thos. Edge and Everett Mofield. Mayor and Police Judge are elected for four years and as they were elected two years ago will not be elected this time. Luther Loving was made chairman and H. M. Brumley Secretary.

Run Out by Negroes.

A news dispatch from Chicago says: Chicago is faced with a serious race problem. The negroes who flourish there have invaded the best residence districts, crowded into the schools, in some cases to the practical elimination of white pupils, monopolized one traction line and have become so active generally that a climax is at hand. Taking a lesson from the South, it is proposed, in all seriousness, to segregate the races in schools. Long and bitter experience there shows that neither race does well when they are bunched together in the schools.

Double Wedding.

Miss Dora Walling and Mr. Gordie Cook, and Miss Pearl Clark and Mr. Green Walling were married September 3th at the home of Wm. Walling in Fleming county. The Wallings are former residents of Powell county, but moved from here to Clark county then later to Fleming county.

Editor in Pistol Duel.

J. Wesley Robards, was shot and fatally wounded by John G. Pulliam, one of the editors of the Harrodsburg Herald, in the office of that paper. Robards fired on Pulliams, who was reading at his desk, and wounded him in the shoulder, and the latter returned the fire and the bullet penetrated Robards' brain.

Had it ever occurred to you that the parents in most cases are responsible for the absolute worthlessness of some of our overgrown, illiterate, immoral and ungrateful boys who adorn the street corners and back alleys of every town?

There is no way of improving a place so much as by encouraging good merchants, good schools and good people to settle among you, and this can not be done unless you spend your money at home.

Many farmers are sowing rye this year which is a very wise idea. Land should never be bear over winter. If our farmers would take better care of their lands, they would raise better crops, and at the same time improve the soil greatly. Farms are just what their owners make them.

The Rev. O. J. Chandler, of Winchester, conducted Quarterly meeting at Hardwick's Creek Saturday and Sunday. Bro. Chandler was formerly pastor here and has many warm friends in this county.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Barnett, of Butler, Mo., were called here upon the death of the former's brother, C. W. Barnett. They will remain a few days visiting relatives and old friends.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Todd, of Ruckerville, Clark county, visited the family of P. D. Todd near this city from Friday till Sunday.

The Fifty-fourth annual meeting of the Kentucky State Medical Association will be held in Louisville next week.

Wm. Lindsay, formerly U. S. Senator from Kentucky is dangerously ill and not expected to recover.

There is a coal famine in Clay City and many of our citizens are forced to burn wood or freeze.

Estill county will sell a franchise to erect a telephone line over the public roads of that county.

Mr. Parrish, of Winchester, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Robt. N. Bush.

NOTICE.

It is rumored around, principally by the adverse party, that the regular Democratic Nominee for the office of Superintendent of Schools, Col. F. P. Tracy, is off the track for the said office. This is untrue to the letter, as his name as such nominee has been certified to the County Court Clerk for placement upon the ballots of the coming November Election, and will undoubtedly be found in the usual place—"Under the old Red Rooster".

A Card.

I wish to thank the Republicans and others interested in my being nominated, and many others still that believed I would have made them an honest County Judge. After letting off about 400 pounds of steam, I feel somewhat better over my defeat. I feel like I have had enough campaigning to do me till the judgment day, and then don't mention it.

R. W. Garrett.

There are always a good many people who keep the balance of the community busy wondering how they live so well.

Notice to Taxpayers.

My term of office expires January 1, 1910. I am held responsible to the County and State for all taxes that can be collected. This means I must collect or lose your tax. All who have not paid by December 1st, the heavy penalties will be imposed by law and I will proceed to levy and sell till I collect the tax of the county in full. The law is imperative and I must be. Pay at once and save me the trouble and you the heavy expense of paying either the penalty or the cost of sale.

Sheriff Powell Co.

Consolation.

do not own an auto gay that ashes madly down the way, and s up distance like some guy efore a home-made apple pie. m glad, indeed, no woman's breath can say I scared her half to death by whizzing past at dizz-zy pace, as if in a long distance race. I never got the fever yet; thanks I never will you bet! For what with bills for tire and spoke, it ever keeps the rich men broke. And then there's bi's for each repair that wants to make a deacon swear; and gee, the gasoline 'twill drink would put old Rocky on the blink! Oh, no, I want no motor car to jiggle, jounce and jar, to shake your nerves and molars loose, and cut up like the very duce, and leave you strained when 'twill balk, so you must climb out and walk.
Stick to your auto if you will, but good old Dobbin suits me still!

One of the most important questions to come before the attention of the voters this election is the change of the constitution to enable us to get good roads if we want them. Don't get so deeply interested in any candidate as to forget to vote for this amendment. This is the most important question of all, don't forget it.

CHARLES W. BARNETT.

The subject of this brief article, was born Sept. 16, 1852, died Oct. 8 1909. He was reared on a farm, but was an all around business man, was at one time one of Clay City's leading merchants.
Mr. Barnett was a member of the Christian church for 20 years, was a devoted husband, a good father, neighbor, and citizen. He was a genial, pleasant companion and he will be affectionately remembered by those who knew him. Thus, my friend is like human life but a series of fleeting pictures, each following the other with such rapidity that e're we grasp the outline of life, the curtain bears the impress of death.

God grant that when those who are left behind are called upon to face the last grim spectral view upon the ecurtain of time allotted to us, we may do so with the same calm fearlessness which marked the passing away of Mr.
Barnett; and may he give of his peace into the lives of those who are so sadly bereaved by his departure until they, in the fullness of their faith and understanding, may be heard to murmur: "The Lord's will be done."

Sweet and peaceful be thy rest, Forget you we can never, God called you—He alone knows best;
His will be done forever.

—A FRIEND.

Card of Thanks.

There are hours that come into the lives of some, when every impulse of the heart is buried under its weight of sorrow. We stand there today; yet we would fain give expression to the gratitude that wells up from the depths of our hearts as we remember the kindness of those who have done so much to comfort our precious dead, and to brighten for us a starless sky.

Then used Electric Bitters. Twelve bottles restored all my old-time health and vigor. Now I can attend to business every day. It's a wonderful medicine." Breakfast bacon is retailing in Winchester to-day at thirty cents per pound, says the Democrat. This price would really mean twelve to fourteen cents for hogs on foot, but has any farmer contracted to sell his hogs at that price? This is an advance of retail prices of from 200 to 250 per cent over the prices of three years ago and shows that the consuming public is but a tool in the hands of the meat trust.

"Off Ag'in, On Ag'in."

Today is a day of sensationalism, and this certainly is true of Powell county Republicanism. It was thought everything had been settled when John H. Hardwick, the Republican nominee for County Judge issued a card withdrawing from the race, and Hall and Welch also withdrew and R. W. Garrett nominated for Judge. For the brief time in which this stood true we printed the other three pages of this issue. We had written up the unwholesome convention Saturday in which Mr. Garrett was defeated without even being given a chance to get his name before the convention, but when we heard the boys were repentant and had done the right thing by withdrawing we would not publish the article as we did not want to fight a man on the right road and did not care to expose the tricksters of the convention when they were making amends for their wrongdoings. With such a ticket as Messrs. Garrett and Profitt we could find nothing bad to say.

But it seems that such a peaceful campaign was not in store for us and the turmoils of Saturday's convention must be renewed. As Mr. Garrett was armed with Hardwick's withdrawal cards and his petition to put his name upon the ballot as the nominee for County Judge, he was intercepted in this city, these peace documents withdrawn from him, with Hardwick, Hall and Welch back on the track. Following was Hardwick's card of withdrawal:

TO THE REPUBLICANS OF POWELL COUNTY.

The condition of my business is such that it requires practically all my time, and I therefore feel that it would be doing the people as well as myself an injustice to accept the nomination for County Judge when I could not give it the proper attention if elected.

It is a well known fact that this nomination was forced upon me over my protest and without my consent, and that I pleaded with my friends up until the hour the convention met not to nominate me. I am deeply grateful for your support, and it is with profound regret that I must decline to make the race. There is yet time to name another candidate either by petition or convention and I pledge my hearty support to whomsoever the candidate may be. Again thanking you for your confidence and good will I beg to remain

Very Respectfully,
J. H. HARDWICK.

This paper has been delayed one day in an endeavor to give the latest, but we do not promise to keep track of all the changes in the future.

The chronology of the past two weeks as best we can learn:

Otc. 1st, Republican convention to nominate county officers legally called. R. W. Garrett candidate; John H. Hardwick not a candidate.

At an intermediate time, caucus called, agreed for Garret to run if he would put up $1,000. To this Garrett agreed upon reasonable conditions.

Garrett in the field finds many Democrats for him and a majority of the Republicans for him having the nomination, but none of them tricksters.

Oct. 9, Stanton full of Republicans, most of them for Garrett, his supporters being variously estimated and conceded to be in a majority of from 40 to two to one.

Great pressure brought to bear upon Mr. Garrett to get him off the track in favor of Hardwick.
Garrett refused as it was evident he had the nomination won.

Convention convenes, and Garrett men agree with opponents on chairman, committee appointed which retired and brought in a report, which was adopted and convention adjourned before Garrett, his supporters and many honest farmers thought the convention was organized. In this scheme Garrett's name was even kept from before the convention, and if he did have a majority of forty or even two to one they were not recognized nor allowed to vote for him.

After this, great dissatisfaction with the majority. Republicans everywhere freely asserting they would not support such unfairness with their vote for the nominees of the convention, nominees begin to consider withdrawing, and Oct. 14 all withdrew but Profitt. R. W. Garrett, who was originally the choice of the party was named for Judge. At about dark Mr. Garrett was pulled off, and Hardwick, Hall and Welch put back on the track.

In all the above transactions please show us where the laymen of the party or one of the common people has had one word to say or one bit of influence. Will the mass of the people stand for such. We will see on the night of November 2, 1909.

As the last lines of this article are set in type we learn that Mr.
Hall refuses to run for Sheriff under such unsavory conditions.

Dr. Martin reports the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs.
Rupard Curtis Oct. 14.

Dr. Hammans is in Jackson for two weeks practice of his profession.
